The cover features a wide, decorative border composed of a repeating geometric pattern of triangles. In the center, there is a large, ornate emblem. This emblem consists of a central diamond shape with internal geometric patterns, flanked by two stylized, symmetrical wing-like or leaf-like structures. Above and below this central motif are smaller, similar decorative elements. The entire design is rendered in a dark, embossed or printed style on a textured, light-colored background.

The F. I. A. met on February 1, 1949, in Room 48 for its regular meeting. Further plans about the club project were discussed. Since the secretary, Willa Winstead Smith, had resigned it was deemed necessary to elect a new one. After nominations and voting, Willana Thomas was chosen as her successor.

Sidney R. Neil led a thought-provoking discussion about the problems of Federal Aid in salary distribution which is facing out State Supreme Court in a case brought against Hinds County by a Negro teacher. The problem was discussed in our relation to it as future teachers. Mrs. Sullivan suggested that we make a further study of the matter.

The club adjourned to meet again on February 17th.
